AMS CEO SELECTED AS “VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR”

Ken Wiseman, CEO of AMS Fulfillment, selected as volunteer of the year!

Los Angeles, CA — April 2008 — Ken Wiseman, of the Santa Clarita Valley Sheriff Station's Search and Rescue Team, nominated by Los Angeles County Supervisor Michael D. Antonovich, has been selected as the "Volunteer of the Year". Ken was honored and recognized at the Los Angeles County Volunteer of the Year luncheon on Monday April 21, 2008, at the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion.

Santa Clarita Valley Sheriff's Station Recognized "National Volunteer Week" April 28th through May 3rd, 2008. During the week the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department and Santa Clarita Valley Sheriff's Station will recognize and show appreciation for all the committed volunteers who devote their time throughout the year to making the Santa Clarita Valley a better, safer place to live.

“It’s great to be able to give back some of my time to a group of professionals so dedicated to protecting our community,” said Ken Wiseman. “Volunteering with Search & Rescue has only increased my appreciation for all that our officers do for us on a day-to-day basis.”

About Search & Rescue

The Santa Clarita Valley Search and Rescue Team is a volunteer group formed to promote safety in the mountains and outdoor recreational facilities used by the people of the community. The team assists the Sheriff's Department or any disaster agency in search and rescue work in the local or outlying areas at their request. The group is trained as Emergency Medical Technicians, and in mountain search and rescue techniques.
