AMS FULFILLMENT OPENS CANADIAN FULFILLMENT CENTER

Los Angeles, CA — May 14, 2008 — AMS Fulfillment (Advantage Media Services, Inc), a leading provider of business-to-business and business-to-consumer fulfillment services, announced the grand opening of its new fulfillment center in Vancouver, BC in January 2008. This expansion is in collaboration with CANADAPLUS.com, an expert in cross boarder parcel traffic and is the parcel-logistics division of Russell A. Farrow Limited (www.farrow.com), an international logistics provider with nearly 100 years of experience in international trade.

AMS President, Jay Catlin, and business partner/CEO Ken Wiseman, have established a reputation for their proactive involvement in daily operations and expertise in meeting the real time demands of clients. In its new Vancouver operation, AMS is bringing their knowledge in B-2-B Pick-Pack-Ship fulfillment operations along with a base of new business activity to launch the facility. With canadaplus.com and Russell A. Farrow, AMS is partnering with a Canada-based fulfillment and 3PL entity with tremendous history, knowledge and expertise in warehousing and fulfillment operations. “In the opening of this facility, AMS was answering the call from one of our top clients who was in need of a reliable and effective Canada-based fulfillment solution,” said Ken Wiseman, CEO/Managing Partner. “We are proud to have been able accommodate their business needs so effectively in Canada, and look forward to expanding the Vancouver operation to manage several cross-border type accounts.” AMS President, Jay Catlin adds: “It was important for us to find a partner that shared our proactive philosophy and dedication to client satisfaction. We couldn’t be more pleased to be partnered with canadaplus.com. The success of this launch into Vancouver is a great achievement in the effort to expand our fulfillment presence across western North America. ”
